

I totally disagree with this legislation. I believe in fair use. Consumers right to record broadcasts has been firmly established. As an HDTV and Tivo owner I do not appreciate this control imposed on me. I have already made some large investments in this technology and I feel I will have to purchase more equipment as the protection is broken and revised.